Opening Remarks

- KI welcomed everyone to the meeting, introduced the board members in attendance and went over the CRBA's mission statement.

Business Introduction – The Healthy Road

- Trionne and Kristine from The Healthy Road discussed their new business located at 518 King Street East. They're operating a health food store paired with other professionals such as nutritionists and naturopaths. Visit their website at thehealthyroad.com.

Guest Speaker – Brent Patterson, Trent University & Ministry of Natural Resources

- Brent Patterson presented a slideshow about coyotes in urban areas, giving facts about their diets, habitats, breeding and behavior. See the attached presentation.

Parks & Public Spaces

- Parks, Public Realm & Open Spaces Committee: First meeting will be held April 3 at Dixon Hall Employment Centre – call for volunteers to support local parks and public spaces.
- Spring Clean-up: The Clean Toronto Together event will take place the weekend of April 26 and April 27. CRBA will have sites posted on corktown.ca.

Construction Update

- King-Sumach intersection: Regular updates will be posted to corktown.ca as construction work continues on this project to connect the new streetcar tracks on Sumach/Cherry. Work will continue for several weeks. The 504 streetcar will continue to divert until work is completed on the Queen Street bridge in August.

Miscellaneous

- Anishnawbe Health: Sula Johnson from MPP Glen Murray's office announced that Anishnawbe Health has been granted land in the West Don Lands. They'll offer more than health services, with an employment centre and a place to showcase art and entertainment.
